JOINT MOTION TO EXTEND SCHEDULING ORDER

Now come the parties in the above-entitled action and respectfully move that the Scheduling Order be extended in this matter. The parties are actively involved in discovery with several depositions to be conducted, including anticipated out of state depositions. This request is being made in good faith by the parties and is not being made in an attempt to delay or prejudice either party.

The parties waive the right to use an expert witness, as the plaintiff did not designate an expert witness.

The parties request that the Scheduling Order be extended to reflect the following dates:

Deadline for completion of Discovery:	December 16, 2005
Deadline for filing of Dispositive Motions	January 6, 2006
Scheduling Conference:	February 8, 2006.
